NOTICE #1

INFORMATION WHICH WILL BE CONTAINED IN CLERK'S NOTICE MANDATED BY SECTION 342(b)

Chapter 7 ($335.00 court filing fee)

Chapter 7 is a proceeding for the liquidation of a debtor's estate. Under Chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to liquidate all of debtor's non-exempt assets. The trustee then distributes the assets in accordance with priorities established by law to the creditors. The debtor ordinarily obtains a discharge. Debtors may file for relief under Chapter 7 only if they are eligible therefor. Circumstances which may preclude a debtor from seeking relief under Chapter 7 include earning of current monthly income in excess of the applicable median amount, current monthly income such that disposable income is in excess of an amount necessary to pay $10,000 to unsecured creditors over a 5 year period or $6,000 over a 5 year period if that amount is equal to 25% or more of the debtor's unsecured debt. These tests apply to debtors whose debt is principally consumer debt.

Chapter 11 ($1,717.00 court filing fee)

Chapter 11 is a proceeding for the reorganization of a debtor engaged in business. Under some circumstances, it is available to consumers as well. Under Chapter 11, a debtor may propose a plan which modifies the rights of one or more classes of creditors. The rights of the creditors may be impaired either by consent of a majority in number or 2/3 in amount of the class affected. A liquidation plan results in creditors being "deemed" impaired.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer ($275.00 court filing fee)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers to repay their debts over a period of time and is in many ways similar to Chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm.

Chapter 13 Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($310.00 court filing fee)

1. Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who are temporarily unable to pay their debts but would like to pay them in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for Chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. You are required to seek relief under Chapter 13, rather than Chapter 7 if your filing under Chapter 7 would constitute "abuse" within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Under Chapter 13 you must file a plan with the court to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. Usually, the period allowed by the court to repay your debts is five years, but no less than three years. Your Plan must be approved by the court before it can take effect.

3. Under Chapter 13, unlike Chapter 7, you may keep all your property, both exempt and non-exempt, as long as you continue to make payments under the plan.

4. After completion of payments under your plan, your debts are discharged except debts for trust fund taxes, taxes for which returns were never filed or filed late (within two years of the petition date), taxes for which you made a fraudulent return or evaded taxes; fraud and false statements under §523(a)(2), unscheduled debt under §523(a)(3), defalcation by a fiduciary under §523(a)(4), domestic support payments, student loans, drunk driving injuries, criminal restitution and fines, and civil restitutions or damages rewarded for willful or malicious personal actions causing personal injury or death.

Services Provided by Credit Counseling Agencies:

Credit Counseling – Section 109(h)

Individuals are ineligible for relief under any Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code unless, within 180 days of the bankruptcy filing, they receive "an individual or group briefing" from a non-profit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee. The agency must provide its services without regard to the debtor's ability to pay any fee. The service may be provided personally, telephonically, or on the internet and must outline opportunities for credit counseling and assist in performing a related budget analysis. Services provided by credit counseling may include evaluation of alternatives to bankruptcy, including, but not limited to, debt management plans. Such plans require concurrence by creditors and this might not be possible in all cases. The Credit Counseling requirement under 11 USC § 109 must be met prior to filing the petition (unless petition is accompanied by a motion for extension for exigent circumstances or a declaration/certification of waiver).

PLEASE NOTE THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- (A) a person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a bankruptcy case shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both; and
- (B) All information supplied by the debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General.

NOTICE #2

Notice to “Persons Assisted” Required by Section 527(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

AS A DEBT RELIEF AGENCY, WE ARE REQUIRED TO INFORM YOU, THE “ASSISTED PERSON,” AS TO THE FOLLOWING MATTERS PURSUANT TO SECTION 527(a) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE:

- (A) all information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and, thereafter, during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful;
- (B) all assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in section 506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value;
- (C) current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with section 707(b)(2)), are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry, and
- (D) information that an assisted person provides during their case may be audited pursuant to this title, and that failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

NOTICE #3

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER 527(b)

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST

Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief made available by the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as, in some cases, a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a ‘trustee’ and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so and a creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford to over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan, along with the confirmation hearing, which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what needs to be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

NOTICE #4

NOTICE TO BE PROVIDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH
SECTION 527(c) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

Except to the extent DONALD T. TESCH, P.S. (“Debt Relief Agency”) provides the required information itself after reasonably diligent inquiry of the CLIENT (“Person Assisted”) or others so as to obtain such information reasonably accurately for inclusion on the petition, schedules, or statement of financial affairs. DONALD T. TESCH, P.S hereby, by this CLEAR AND CONSPICUOUS WRITING desires to inform you how to provide the information required in your Bankruptcy Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs:

(1) HOW TO VALUE ASSETS AT REPLACEMENT VALUE:

You must determine how much your personal property is worth as it is today. Do not value your property based upon what you can sell it for. Instead, value it at what you would have to pay to replace it. If your property is new or close to new, consider retail value adjusted to whatever extent appropriate for the amount the property has been used. If there is a market for your property as used, you may use that market to determine value. For example, you may consider using thrift store prices or prices at house or garage sale or at a secondary marketplace such as eBay to determine what it would cost you to replace your personal property.

(2) HOW TO DETERMINE CURRENT MONTHLY INCOME:

In order to determine current monthly income, you must consider your income for six months immediately prior to the commencement of your Bankruptcy Petition. If you provide us with accurate payment advice for the six months immediately prior to the commencement of the Bankruptcy Petition, we will assist you in determining your “Current Monthly Income.”

(3) HOW TO DETERMINE THE AMOUNTS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 707(b)(2) AND IN A CHAPTER 13 CASE, HOW TO DETERMINE DISPOSABLE INCOME IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 707(b)(2) and RELATED CALCULATIONS:

In order to determine these amounts, you should provide us with actual expenditures you make in each of the pertinent categories. We will compare them to the allowed amounts pursuant to current Internal Revenue Standards in order to determine your “Disposal Income” in accordance with Section 707(b)(2).

(4) HOW TO COMPLETE THE LIST OF CREDITORS, INCLUDING HOW TO DETERMINE WHAT AMOUNT IS OWED AND WHAT ADDRESS FOR THE CREDITOR SHOULD BE SHOWN:

In order to determine your list of creditors, the amount owed and what address should be shown, we will need to see your bills for each creditor for a period of 90 days immediately prior to the commencement of your case. We may utilize a National list of creditors’ addresses for additional information. IT IS VITAL TO HAVE THE PROPER ADDRESS FOR EACH CREDITOR, AS WELL AS THE ACCOUNT NUMBER FOR EACH CREDITOR, FAILURE TO PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN ANY NOTICE BEING GIVEN TO THAT CREDITOR BEING TREATED AS INVALID, RESULTING IN THAT DEBT NOT BEING DISCHARGED IN YOUR BANKRUPTCY CASE.

(5) HOW TO DETERMINE WHAT PROPERTY IS EXEMPT AND HOW TO VALUE EXEMPT PROPERTY AT REPLACEMENT VALUE AS DEFINED IN SECTION 506 OF THIS TITLE:

When you provide us the complete list of your property, we will evaluate with you the applicable law of Washington as well as any other state in which you may have lived in recent years to determine which exemption applies. We do not think that it will be very easy or appropriate for you to determine exemptions without appropriate and competent “Bankruptcy Assistance.”

AnnualCreditReport.com

AnnualCreditReport.com is a centralized service for consumers to request annual credit reports. It was created by the three nationwide consumer credit reporting companies, Equifax, Experian and TransUnion.

AnnualCreditReport.com processes requests for free credit file disclosures (commonly called credit reports). Under the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACT Act) consumers can request and obtain a free credit report once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide consumer credit reporting companies. AnnualCreditReport.com provides consumers with the secure means to do so.

The three nationwide consumer credit reporting companies have always encouraged consumers to regularly review their credit reports. AnnualCreditReport.com offers consumers a fast and convenient way to request, view and print their credit reports in a secure Internet environment. We also provide options to request reports by telephone and by mail.

AnnualCreditReport.com is the only service authorized by Equifax, Experian and TransUnion for this purpose. Please note that, as a security precaution, consumers should never provide their personal information to any other company or person in connection with requesting free annual credit reports under the FACT Act. AnnualCreditReport.com will not approach consumers via email, telemarketing or direct mail solicitations.

Equifax

Equifax Inc. (NYSE: EFX) is a global leader in turning information into intelligence. For businesses, Equifax provides faster and easier ways to find, approve and market to the right customers. Pre-filing Credit Counseling Certificate & Post-Filing Financial Management Course

The new Bankruptcy Law requires more from debtors, including a pre-filing consultation with an approved credit counseling service in an attempt to force consumers to pay their debts outside of bankruptcy. In order for us to file a bankruptcy for you it is now required that you complete the 60 to 90 minute telephonic and/or internet counseling and obtain a Certificate from the credit counseling agency. You are also required to complete a 90 minute telephonic and/or internet counseling session for a Financial Management Course after your case has been filed. You will obtain an additional Certificate for this session. If you are filing a joint petition each debtor is required to complete this Financial Management course separately and will each obtain a separate Certificate.

Once you have completed your counseling requirements you may have the agency fax our office the required certificate to the fax number listed above or you may call our office directly and provide us with your counseling session certificate number. Please note that you may receive solicitations from numerous agencies to use their services for the Financial Management Course, we recommend you use the same agency as your pre-filing counseling session as in some cases you may have already paid them directly for the fees associated with the required counseling sessions.

The following credit counseling agencies are a few that have been approved for the Western District of Washington:
